BASEBALL

Three Home Games.

Three fast home games are scheduled for the Barton team at the fair grounds within the next few days. Orleans meets Barton Thursday afternoon, Hardwick Saturday afternoon and the famous Boston Tiger colored team Tuesday afternoon. All three games will be fast ones but Barton does not prepare to drop. All three games will be fast ones for a winning streak.

Sherbrooke Wins.

Our Canadian cousins came over the border last Wednesday and in a friendly way beat us up 7 to 3. The game was without special features except that B. Lee and Lafontaine made four hits each. Thormahlen pitching for Sherbrooke was never in danger and Daley pitched the same consistent ball he has shown all season—the kind that should win him many games.

MANY ACCIDENTS

Fatal Auto Train Crash

Gladys Bean, aged 16, is dead, Reed Dewey is in a critical condition in the Orleans hospital and Pride and Berlie Bean received minor injuries as a result of the northbound air line striking the Buick car in which the four were riding, at the Summit grade crossing seven miles south of Barton on the B. & M. railroad Wednesday afternoon about 5 o'clock.

Mr. Dewey, Pride, Gladys and Berlie Bean had driven from Newark to Barton and called on Mr. Dewey's sister, Mrs. Alonzo Bean, and were returning home when the accident happened.

The Summit crossing is a blind one and the car was approaching it with caution, but did not hear the coming train until it was upon them in the crash.

The train stopped, took the four persons aboard and carried them to Barton, where a physician could not be found at the time. Although the locomotive repeatedly sounded the emergency call for a physician, Berlie and Pride, not being seriously injured, were taken to the home of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Bean, while Gladys and Mr. Dewey were taken to Orleans and sent to the hospital. Miss Bean died before reaching the hospital. Mr. Dewey remained unconscious until 3 o'clock Thursday morning and in a very critical condition, the hospital reporting him as recovering. He was terribly cut and crushed.

Funeral services for Miss Bean were held from the church at Newark Friday afternoon. She leaves a father and mother, three sisters and three brothers.

While no blame has been placed, the occupants of the car claim the train did not whistle. Pride Bean jumped from the car before it was struck. The car is a complete wreck.

Derby Man Injured by Bull

W. T. Kilborn while watering his bull last Monday morning was attacked by the animal and thrown to the floor. He regained his feet, but was again knocked down by the angry brute, which began trampling and stamping upon him. Had it not been for the timely aid of Carleton Adams, who happened to be in the barn at the time, Mr. Kilborn would undoubtedly have been killed. As it was his head, shoulders, back, right side and right ankle were badly bruised. An X-ray showed no broken bones, but badly bruised flesh. Mr. Kilborn succeeded in keeping hold of the rope so the animal did not hook him. Up to this time the bull has been considered of mild temper and good disposition. Mr. Kilborn is doing well at present.

Accident at Perry.

Carlos Libby of Willoughby had the misfortune to lose a part of his thumb at the United States Bobbin and Shuttle Co.'s plant Thursday. He was taken to the Orleans Hospital, where the wound was dressed.

Westfield Woman Gored by Bull

Mrs. J. H. Magnen of Westfield was seriously gored by a bull Friday evening. The circumstances of the shocking affair seems that Magnen was away from home, as related in another column, at the time for evening milking and her husband drove the cattle to the barnyard, accompanied by a fifteen year old daughter. The bull, a two-year old and known to be vicious was with the herd, and on reaching the enclosure attacked the woman, one horn piercing her right breast, making a deep wound. Her scalp was also lacerated, requiring several stitches to close the gash, and her lips and limbs bruised.

The child cried for assistance and M. H. Burbridge was the first to reach the scene, driving the infuriated animal away with a pitchfork. Her scalp was also lacerated, requiring several stitches to close the gash, and her lips and limbs bruised.

The child cried for assistance and M. H. Burbridge was the first to reach the scene, driving the infuriated animal away with a pitchfork. Her scalp was also lacerated, requiring several stitches to close the gash, and her lips and limbs bruised.

Mrs. Bessie Rash and daughter, Charlotte, from Springfield, Mass., are visiting relatives here.

Chas. Averill and Miss Eva Smith of Boston spent the past week in town and boarded at M. E. Calkins'.

Electric lights are now installed in the homes of Wm. Wells, Joe Willis, Joe Tatro, A. E. Frech and M. C. Clapper.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Tatro, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Tatro, E. H. Tatro and Mrs. Bessie Rash visited Mrs. Mabel Bushaw in Sutton Sunday.

Don't forget the baseball game next Tuesday, July 26th, at the fair grounds; Boston Tigers vs. Barton, at 2:30. Admission 50 cents, war tax 5 cents.

Matter Not Boasted About.

Holla-ders boast that in their country there is a cow on every inhabitant. Whereat we can retort by replying that every one over here has a goat, but they don't do much talking on the subject.—Buffalo Express.

RECENT DEATHS.

Mrs. Z. H. Shedd.

The death of Mrs. Shedd on July 14th, removes one of our old time and much respected citizens. The funeral was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. King on Saturday, which was the 80th birthday anniversary of the deceased and was largely attended. Rev. W. A. Warner of Peacham, had known her in early life, officiated at the funeral. Burial was in the Welcome O. Brown cemetery beside the remains of her husband who died January 2, 1903.

Desire L. Chamberlain was born at Enosburg Falls, July 16, 1841. She was united in marriage to Z. H. Shedd, February 23, 1859. They lived for a time in Lowell where she lived the life of a real pioneer wife. Three children were born to them, Freeman I., Maria A. (now Mrs. King) and Allen W. Her sons predeceased her to the better land.

She was a woman of remarkable character, diligent in business, fervent in spirit, serving the Lord and her family faithfully and well until eight years ago when she became helpless from paralysis and needed constant care which was the regret of her life.

"Thou restest heart, be still, for 'Thou art God's own smile; His love can every sorrow reconcile.'"

She is survived by her daughter, Mrs. King and six grandchildren, all of whom were present at the funeral with the exception of Miss Hala Shedd, who was unable to come. Mrs. Melissa Shedd, a sister-in-law, of Franklin, Mrs. Chamberlain of Glover, Mrs. Honsinger of Coventry, Mrs. Cowles, Mrs. Carpenter, Orin Carpenter of Irasburg; Mrs. R. H. Gray and Mrs. Gray of Glover were among other relatives and friends present at the funeral.

Beautiful flowers were silent witnesses to the esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Wm. Colliston.

Maria A. Colliston died at the home of Mrs. Marion Nelson on Glover Street July 13, being 85 years and one day old, after an illness of about four months. She was born in this town and had spent practically her entire life in Barton, having married Mr. Colliston here.

She was a woman who spent much time doing good to others and assisted in church and lodge.

Only one sister, Myra P. White, of Springfield, Mass., survives of the immediate family. Funeral services were held Friday, Rev. M. A. Turner officiating and interment was in Welcome O. Brown cemetery.

GLOVER

The bandstand in Glover village is undergoing repairs.

Miss Vesta Elliot has returned from her visit in Pittsfield, Mass. Noble Clark has sold his farm on Clark hill to a man from Canada.

Mrs. John Arthur is entertaining her nephew and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bodwell from Arms, Iowa.

Charles Berry, who has been seriously ill at the home of his sister, Mrs. Chas. Chesley, is recovering.

Don't forget the baseball game next Tuesday, July 26th, at the fair grounds; Boston Tigers vs. Barton, at 2:30. Admission 50 cents, war tax 5 cents.

There will be a meeting of Glover Grange Thursday evening, July 28th. Program: Music, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings; reading, Miss Jean Salmon; song, Mrs. May Drew; reading, Mrs. Francis Smith; song, Floyd Taylor. Question for general discussion, "Is Lack of Recreation too Much Work that Makes the Young People Leave the Farm?" Music, Mr. and Mrs. Hastings; social hour, Lyle Bean; refreshments, Clayton Elliott.

GLOVER COMMUNITY CHURCH
Rev. John Kimball, Pastor.
Morning worship 11 a. m.
